A PRIME GEOGRAPHIC AND COMMERCIAL LOCATION

As your new office, Westgate even comes with its own motorway junction. After all, the property is situated in direct proximity to the A4, as you enter Baar and Zug. The site is just as easy to reach using public transport, with Baar Neufeld railway station a mere five-minute walk away. The centre of Baar – with its myriad restaurants, cafés and shops – is just a ten-minute walk away.

Numerous big-name service providers and industrial companies are just a stone's throw away from Westgate, not to mention a major further education college and various specialist retail outlets. The 'in-house' restaurant, La Strada, is also the ideal spot for a business lunch or an enjoyable coffee break.

The canton of Zug is one of the most economically attractive locations in Switzerland, with some 30,000 companies – including multinational firms such as Roche, Mars Switzerland and Siemens – based here.
